

HAT PART 2

HAT BRIM

A hand-drawn diagram of a hat pattern. It consists of two main sections. The upper section is a trapezoidal shape with a curved top edge, labeled 'HAT PART 2'. The lower section is a trapezoidal shape with a curved bottom edge, labeled 'BODY PART 1'. The two sections are separated by a diagonal line that runs from the bottom-left towards the top-right. The lines are drawn in a simple, sketchy style.

HAT PART 2

BODY PART 1

A hand-drawn diagram consisting of two main shapes. The top shape is a long, narrow, teardrop-like form with a pointed left end and a straight vertical right edge, representing a beard. The bottom shape is a large, irregular polygon with a curved bottom edge and a sharp point on the right side, representing a body part. The two shapes are connected by a horizontal line that is slightly curved. The word 'BEARD' is written in the center of the top shape, and 'BODY PART 2' is written in the center of the bottom shape.
